

Society

Comes From Hawaii to Be Wed

Miss Elizabeth Pickering (above) daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank I. Pickering, Honolulu, Hawaii, will become the bride of Rev. F. W. Walls, son of Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Walls, 419 Ninth street east, at a ceremony at 4 p. m. today at Free Methodist church. Rev. E. W. Walls will officiate at the service which will be read before an altar rail banked with ferns and palms and bouquets of pink and white pompoms lit with two three-branch candelabras on either side of the altar rail. A large palm will be placed behind the pulpit and flanked by two seven-branch candelabra.

Preceding the ceremony Kenneth French and Oscar Leeper will sing "I Love You Truly." A mixed quartet will sing "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" as processional. The bride will wear a long white satin gown with a short train and long full sleeves. Her long tulle veil will fall from a cap decorated with orange blossoms and she will carry a bouquet of pink roses and white pom poms. Mrs. Paul Walls, Marshalltown, her matron of honor, will wear a rose chiffon gown fashioned along princess lines and carry a bouquet of pink and white pom poms. Paul Walls, Marshalltown, will be best man.

A reception for 65 guests will take place at the Walls residence after the ceremony. Mrs. Paul Walls will be assisting hostess and Mrs. E. W. Walls will pour. The couple will leave Sunday evening for a week's trip thru southern Illinois and Missouri. They will be at home after Oct. 22 at 419 Ninth street east. Rev. F. W. Walls is assistant pastor of the Free Methodist churches of Waterloo and Cedar Falls. For the wedding trip, the bride will wear a blue silk print frock with matching accessories and a gray coat.

[Courier Photo]

Among the wedding guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Joy, and three children of Des Moines.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Hawaii, Honolulu, where she received her A. B. degree last year. She attended Greenville college, Greenville, Ill., for three years previous. Rev. Mr. Walls is a graduate of Greenville college, where he received his A. B. degree. During his enrollment in college he was president of Student assembly.