

DR. F. W. WALLS EARNS TRAVEL GRANT TO INDIA

Dr. F. Wesley Walls, professor of political science, has been awarded a Fulbright-Hayes traveling grant to attend the Institute on Indian Civilization at the University of Mysore, Bangalore, India.

DR. WALLS

Tentative plans call for Dr. Walls to remain in India to help establish the S.P.C. overseas study program at Union Seminary, Yoetmal, India.

Ten men students are expected to participate in the first year of study.

Dr. Walls will attend a five-day briefing in Washington, D.C., in June before going to India. He will visit Europe on his way to India and return via The Philippines, Formosa, and Japan.

Walls did research on the United Nations and specialized agencies in New York and Mexico under a Danforth teacher's study grant in 1957-58.
