

Retiring After 20 Years

We want to extend a huge thanks to Elizabeth Walls for her service in our church as librarian for the past 20 years. She also had put in many years in the library prior to taking over as librarian. She has done a wonderful job keeping our library organized and up to date. She has been assisted by Leora Dietzman, Mary Major, Rita Krienke, and Helen Koller. Another big thanks to these faithful workers.

Our new library coordinator will be Jennie Castner. She is recruiting people to help her so let her know if you are interested. Our library is a very comfortable place to sit and read or browse through many of the current popular fiction and non-fiction books. It is open every Sunday morning, all morning long. Stop by and "check us out."

And About Book Donations

If you have recently purchased books that you are finished with why not donate them to the church library? Good books should be passed around and this is a great way to increase the value of a book. Or why not buy a book to donate? We'll even let you read it first. Watch for a donation bin in the church foyer and start looking over your bookshelves (recent or classic books are best).
